

Master of Arts in Ministry Program
Handbook & Course Catalog

2024-2025

CONTENTS

Accreditation and Memberships	1
President's Message	2
College Seal	3
College History	5
Denominational Affiliation and Doctrinal Statement	6
Baptist Faith and Message	6
Mission Statement, Institutional Objectives, Core Values, Non-discrimination Clause	15
Philosophy of Education	16
Ownership, Support & Administrative Structure	17
What Is Direct Assessment / Competency Based Education?	18
Four Assessment Tools to be Used in the Master of Arts in Ministry Program	19
Master of Arts in Ministry Program: Program & Student Learning Outcomes	20
List of Competencies	20
Masters Course Schedule	22
Syllabi & Booklists	23
What Would My Studies Be Like?	23
Achieving Competency	26
Demonstrating Competency	27
Graduate Fee Sheet: Tuition and Fees	28
Financial Aid	29
Graduate Program Housing	30
Graduate Program Quick Reference Guide	31
CCBBC Admissions Policy	32
Mentors	34
Student-Mentor Contract	35
Mentor Activity Report	37
Distance Education	39
Academic Policies	40
Procedure for Student Concerns/Complaints	46
Code of Conduct	47
Form and Style	48
Advising Worksheet	49
Director of Graduate Studies	50
Graduate Faculty	50

ACCREDITATION AND MEMBERSHIPS

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College is accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education. The Association for Biblical Higher Education is an institutional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education for the purpose of accrediting colleges that offer baccalaureate and master degrees which prepare students for Christian ministries through biblical, professional, and general studies. ABHE holds membership with the Council on Higher Education Accreditation Board (CHEA). Contact ABHE at 5850 T.G. Lee Blvd., Ste. 130, Orlando, FL 32822 or info@abhe.org or call 407-207-0808 for questions about the accreditation of Clear Creek Baptist Bible College.

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate, baccalaureate, and master degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or www.sacscoc.org or call 404-679-4500 (ext. 4504) for questions about the accreditation of Clear Creek Baptist Bible College.

Accrediting bodies should only be contacted to verify accredited status or if there is evidence that appears to support an institution's significant non-compliance with a requirement or standard. All inquiries concerning admissions requirements, financial aid, academic programs, etc. should not be addressed to accrediting agencies, but should be addressed directly to the college.

The Council on Postsecondary Education of the Commonwealth of Kentucky has authorized the certificate, associate, bachelor's and Master's degree programs at Clear Creek Baptist Bible College. The United States Immigration and Naturalization Service has given approval for Clear Creek Baptist Bible College to consider international students as applicants.

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College is approved by both the Veterans Educational Assistance Program and the Kentucky Educational and Rehabilitation Program.

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College does not discriminate against applicants or students on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Greetings,

What a joy it is to provide you with academic information about one of God's hidden gems, Clear Creek Baptist Bible College. Since 1926, Clear Creek has existed to train those called by God to serve in ministry according to their fullest capabilities. As a result, this institution is known throughout the country as a premier place to receive a world-class theological and ministerial education. Those who train here are equipped and prepared to go anywhere. We have alumni serving in a plethora of positions in places all over the world. Clear Creek is proudly accredited by both ABHE and SACSCOC. These accreditors assure that Clear Creek is a premiere institution of biblical higher education, and their partnership guarantees our graduates that their degrees will carry weight and acceptance in all realms of academia and practical ministry.

The College campus is in a rural retreat-like setting. Our vast campus borders Pine Mountain State Park, which allows our students to study in a place surrounded by the breathtaking beauty of God's undisturbed creation. Clear Creek also offers online students a cutting-edge delivery system. Our online students have the opportunity to connect with professors, fellow students, and the campus as a whole in ways that seemed impossible just a few years ago. Clear Creek Baptist Bible College has a family atmosphere across our physical and digital campuses. If you are a current student, we are honored to have you. And if not, we would love to see you become part of the Clear Creek Family.

Blessings,

Dr. Charlie Goodman

President

"For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel." Ezra 7:10

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College's seal provides a vivid representation of our priorities.

THE SHIELD

"Above all, taking the shield of faith..." Ephesians 6:16.

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College, from its beginning, has existed to provide educational preparation for adults called of God into Christian service. Students in this theological school have taken the shield of faith, burning bridges of security behind them by responding to God's clarion to prepare for special Christian service.

THE SPIRIT

"I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy." Acts 2:18.

The college maintains a special interest in Baptist preachers who have yielded to the call to preach after they have reached mature years. Touched by the Holy Spirit's tongue of fire, Clear Creek students have exchanged personal ambitions for a torch of knowledge, a desire for an understanding of spiritual truths.

THE BIBLE

"All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable..." II Timothy 3:16.

The school is an adult educational institution maintained to meet a specific need in the program of Southern Baptist education. Students are offered ministerial preparation centered on the study of the Bible.

THE MOUNTAINS

"I will lift up my eyes unto the hills..." Psalms 121:1.

From its founding the school has considered the southern mountain region as its distinctive field and its work is conducted with a view to supplying well-prepared Christian leadership for this area. Although the school's special ministry centers in the Appalachian regions, students are not limited to these areas. Students come from throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

THE CROSS

"...that in all things He might have the preeminence." Colossians 1:18.

The Cross--and all that word implies--is the center of this school's life. Christ commands every Christian to bear his cross and to share in the ministry of the gospel.

COLLEGE HISTORY

Dr. Lloyd Caswell Kelly, pastor of the Pineville First Baptist Church, founded Clear Creek in 1926. His mission for bringing Christian education to the mountains was twofold. He was inspired to charter Clear Creek Mountain Springs, Inc. "...for educational, recreational and religious purposes, with two objectives in mind: (1) to provide grounds for assemblies and encampments and (2) to establish a base for a 'mountain mission' program." The first sessions for preachers were held July 18-August 1, 1926 with twelve students.

In 1946, the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky (now the Kentucky Baptist Convention) approved the name of the school as Clear Creek Mountain Preacher's Bible School. The primary focus of the school continued to be educating God-called men and women for Christian ministry.

From 1954-1982, Dr. Dennis Merrill Aldridge served as the second president of the school. Under his leadership, the school grew to offer a four-year baccalaureate degree. A charter revision in 1957 changed the name to Clear Creek Baptist School.

From 1982-1988, Dr. Leon Dennis Simpson was president. He led the school to receive accreditation from the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges in 1986 at which time the name was changed to Clear Creek Baptist Bible College. The Pomeroy Family Life Center was constructed. An innovative class schedule was adopted that encouraged enrollment of commuting students.

From 1988-2007 Dr. Bill D. Whittaker served as president of the college. Early in his administration, the college became debt free and continues to operate without debt. In 1996, the Association of Biblical Higher Education reaffirmed the college's accreditation for ten years, and then reaffirmed the accreditation until 2017. A successful capital campaign concluded in 1998 with the completion of a new classroom building and nearly a million dollars in additional endowment. In June 1999, the college received accreditation with the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and the accreditation was last renewed in June of 2015.

Dr. Donnie Fox has served at Clear Creek since 1999 in various administrative roles in College Relations, Admissions and Development. Dr. Fox has served as the fifth President of Clear Creek since 2007 and is the first Clear Creek alumnus to serve as president of the college. The President's home was moved back on campus in the first year of his presidency to have better interaction with the campus family. Under his leadership, the college met a $1,000,000 goal of gifts and pledges for a Student Workship Endowment and was able to secure two decennial accreditation reaffirmations: SACSCOC and ABHE. During his administration, the college curriculum was adjusted to combine all Bachelor's Degrees into one, the Bachelor of Arts in Ministry, which is a more flexible degree. A Bachelor of Arts in Ministry degree was also developed to be delivered completely online along with the development of a high school dual enrollment program. In 2020, the college was approved to offer a direct assessment competency-based Master of Arts in Ministry degree. Campus improvements have been completed during Dr. Fox's tenure that include resurfacing campus roadways, renovation of Melzoni/Alumni Hall and the installation of screens, projectors and video cameras in the chapel to livestream chapel services. Campus classes are now livestreamed to give online students the opportunity to experience the live classroom setting. The college continues to operate without debt under his leadership.

Dr. Charles R. Goodman became President of CCBBC January 1st, 2023. He has served the college in various administrative and faculty roles, including Dean of Students and Professor of Theology, since 2004. Dr. Goodman also served as the first director of the competency-based MA in Ministry degree. Currently, under Dr. Goodman's leadership, the school has extended its degree offerings for undergraduate programs to include a BA in Pastoral Ministry and a BA in Biblical Counseling Ministry.

DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION

In 1946, Clear Creek became a recognized educational institution of the Kentucky Baptist Convention. It shares in the money allocated to Christian Education by the Kentucky Baptist Convention. The convention nominates and elects the 32 trustees of the college. The college operates cooperatively within the policies, plans, and programs of Kentucky Baptists and has fellowship with the churches of the Southern Baptist Convention. The ministry of the college serves the needs and interests of the denomination.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

The charter of the college provides that all members of the Board of Trustees and the teaching and administrative staffs shall be members of Southern Baptist churches in good standing. The Baptist Faith and Message Statement of 1925, with revisions in 1963, 1998 and 2000 is the adopted statement of faith for all faculty, staff and trustees of the college as a witness to our beliefs and a pledge of our faithfulness to the doctrines revealed in Holy Scripture. All employees sign annual contracts signifying adherence to the college's statement of faith.

THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE

I. The Scriptures

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. Therefore, all Scripture is totally true and trustworthy. It reveals the principles by which God judges us, and supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. All Scripture is a testimony to Christ, who is Himself the focus of divine revelation.

Exodus 24:4; Deuteronomy 4:1-2; 17:19; Joshua 8:34; Psalms 19:7-10; 119:11,89,105,140; Isaiah 34:16; 40:8; Jeremiah 15:16; 36:1-32; Matthew 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16ff.; 17:11; Romans 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; Hebrews 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21.

II. God

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. God is all powerful and all knowing; and His perfect knowledge extends to all things, past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal triune God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all knowing, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

Genesis 1:1; 2:7; Exodus 3:14; 6:2-3; 15:11ff.; 20:1ff.; Leviticus 22:2; Deuteronomy 6:4; 32:6; 1 Chronicles 29:10; Psalm 19:1-3; Isaiah 43:3,15; 64:8; Jeremiah 10:10; 17:13; Matthew 6:9ff.; 7:11; 23:9; 28:19; Mark 1:9-11; John 4:24; 5:26; 14:6-13; 17:1-8; Acts 1:7; Romans 8:14-15; 1 Corinthians 8:6; Galatians 4:6; Ephesians 4:6; Colossians 1:15; 1 Timothy 1:17; Hebrews 11:6; 12:9; 1 Peter 1:17; 1 John 5:7.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself human nature with its demands and necessities and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His substitutionary death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, fully God, fully man, in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever-present Lord.

Genesis 18:1ff.; Psalms 2:7ff.; 110:1ff.; Isaiah 7:14; 53; Matthew 1:18-23; 3:17; 8:29; 11:27; 14:33; 16:16,27; 17:5; 27; 28:1-6,19; Mark 1:1; 3:11; Luke 1:35; 4:41; 22:70; 24:46; John 1:1-18,29; 10:30,38; 11:25-27; 12:44-50; 14:7-11; 16:15-16,28; 17:1-5, 21-22; 20:1-20,28; Acts 1:9; 2:22-24; 7:55-56; 9:4-5,20; Romans 1:3-4; 3:23-26; 5:6-21; 8:1-3,34; 10:4; 1 Corinthians 1:30; 2:2; 8:6; 15:1-8,24-28; 2 Corinthians 5:19-21; 8:9; Galatians 4:4-5; Ephesians 1:20; 3:11; 4:7-10; Philippians 2:5-11; Colossians 1:13-22; 2:9; 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18; 1 Timothy 2:5-6; 3:16; Titus 2:13-14; Hebrews 1:1-3; 4:14-15; 7:14-28; 9:12-15,24-28; 12:2; 13:8; 1 Peter 2:21-25; 3:22; 1 John 1:7-9; 3:2; 4:14-15; 5:9; 2 John 7-9; Revelation 1:13-16; 5:9-14; 12:10-11; 13:8; 19:16.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, fully divine. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts men of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. He calls men to the Savior, and effects regeneration. At the moment of regeneration, He baptizes every believer into the Body of Christ. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the guarantee that God will bring the believer into the fullness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

Genesis 1:2; Judges 14:6; Job 26:13; Psalms 51:11; 139:7ff.; Isaiah 61:1-3; Joel 2:28-32; Matthew 1:18; 3:16; 4:1; 12:28-32; 28:19; Mark 1:10,12; Luke 1:35; 4:1,18-19; 11:13; 12:12; 24:49; John 4:24; 14:16-17,26; 15:26; 16:7-14; Acts 1:8; 2:1-4,38; 4:31; 5:3; 6:3; 7:55; 8:17,39; 10:44; 13:2; 15:28; 16:6; 19:1-6; Romans 8:9-11,14-16,26-27; 1 Corinthians 2:10-14; 3:16; 12:3-11,13; Galatians 4:6; Ephesians 1:13-14; 4:30; 5:18; 1 Thessalonians 5:19; 1 Timothy 3:16; 4:1; 2 Timothy 1:14; 3:16; Hebrews 9:8,14; 2 Peter 1:21; 1 John 4:13; 5:6-7; Revelation 1:10; 22:17.

III. Man

Man is the special creation of God, made in His own image. He created them male and female as the crowning work of His creation. The gift of gender is thus part of the goodness of God's creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by his Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin. Therefore, as soon as they are capable of moral action, they become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

Genesis 1:26-30; 2:5,7,18-22; 3; 9:6; Psalms 1; 8:3-6; 32:1-5; 51:5; Isaiah 6:5; Jeremiah 17:5; Matthew 16:26; Acts 17:26-31; Romans 1:19-32; 3:10-18,23; 5:6,12,19; 6:6; 7:14-25; 8:14-18,29; 1 Corinthians 1:21-31; 15:19,21-22; Ephesians 2:1-22; Colossians 1:21-22; 3:9-11.

IV. Salvation

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace.

Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Savior.

B. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer unto a relationship of peace and favor with God.

C. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual maturity through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

D. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

Genesis 3:15; Exodus 3:14-17; 6:2-8; Matthew 1:21; 4:17; 16:21-26; 27:22-28:6; Luke 1:68-69; 2:28-32; John 1:11-14,29; 3:3-21,36; 5:24; 10:9,28-29; 15:1-16; 17:17; Acts 2:21; 4:12; 15:11; 16:30-31; 17:30-31; 20:32; Romans 1:16-18; 2:4; 3:23-25; 4:3ff.; 5:8-10; 6:1-23; 8:1-18,29-39; 10:9-10,13; 13:11-14; 1 Corinthians 1:18,30; 6:19-20; 15:10; 2 Corinthians 5:17-20; Galatians 2:20; 3:13; 5:22-25; 6:15; Ephesians 1:7; 2:8-22; 4:11-16; Philippians 2:12-13; Colossians 1:9-22; 3:1ff.; 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24; 2 Timothy 1:12; Titus 2:11-14; Hebrews 2:1-3; 5:8-9; 9:24-28; 11:1-12:8,14; James 2:14-26; 1 Peter 1:2-23; 1 John 1:6-2:11; Revelation 3:20; 21:1-22:5.

V. God's Purpose of Grace

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is the glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, and bring reproach on the cause of Christ and temporal judgments on themselves; yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-8; 1 Samuel 8:4-7,19-22; Isaiah 5:1-7; Jeremiah 31:31ff.; Matthew 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22,31; 25:34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24:44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45,65; 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6,12,17-18; Acts 20:32; Romans 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7,26-36; 1 Corinthians 1:1-2; 15:24-28; Ephesians 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Colossians 1:12-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:13-14; 2 Timothy 1:12; 2:10,19; Hebrews 11:39-12:2; James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:2-5,13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9; 2:19; 3:2.

VI. The Church

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the two ordinances of Christ, governed by His laws, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. Each congregation operates under the Lordship of Christ through democratic processes. In such a congregation each member is responsible and accountable to Christ as Lord. Its scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture. The New Testament speaks also of the church as the Body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages, believers from every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

Matthew 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42,47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23,27; 15:1-30; 16:5; 20:28; Romans 1:7; 1 Corinthians 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14; 12; Ephesians 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11,21; 5:22-32; Philippians 1:1; Colossians 1:18; 1 Timothy 2:9-14; 3:1-15; 4:14; Hebrews 11:39-40; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Revelation 2-3; 21:2-3.

VII. Baptism and the Lord's Supper

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Savior, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matthew 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; 20:7; Romans 6:3-5; 1 Corinthians 10:16,21; 11:23-29; Colossians 2:12.

VIII. The Lord's Day

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Exodus 20:8-11; Matthew 12:1-12; 28:1ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3,33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1,19-28; Acts 20:7; Romans 14:5-10; 1 Corinthians 16:1-2; Colossians 2:16; 3:16; Revelation 1:10.

IX. The Kingdom

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

Genesis 1:1; Isaiah 9:6-7; Jeremiah 23:5-6; Matthew 3:2; 4:8-10,23; 12:25-28; 13:1-52; 25:31-46; 26:29; Mark 1:14-15; 9:1; Luke 4:43; 8:1; 9:2; 12:31-32; 17:20-21; 23:42; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:6-7; 17:22-31; Romans 5:17; 8:19; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28; Colossians 1:13; Hebrews 11:10,16; 12:28; 1 Peter 2:4-10; 4:13; Revelation 1:6,9; 5:10; 11:15; 21-22.

X. Last Things

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

Isaiah 2:4; 11:9; Matthew 16:27; 18:8-9; 19:28; 24:27,30,36,44; 25:31-46; 26:64; Mark 8:38; 9:43-48; Luke 12:40,48; 16:19-26; 17:22-37; 21:27-28; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:11; 17:31; Romans 14:10; 1 Corinthians 4:5; 15:24-28,35-58; 2 Corinthians 5:10; Philippians 3:20-21; Colossians 1:5; 3:4; 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18; 5:1ff.; 2 Thessalonians 1:7ff.; 2; 1 Timothy 6:14; 2 Timothy 4:1,8; Titus 2:13; Hebrews 9:27-28; James 5:8; 2 Peter 3:7ff.; 1 John 2:28; 3:2; Jude 14; Revelation 1:18; 3:11; 20:1-22:13.

XI. Evangelism and Missions

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ has commanded the preaching of the gospel to all nations. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by verbal witness undergirded by a Christian lifestyle, and by other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-6; Isaiah 6:1-8; Matthew 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8,16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2; 8:26-40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 3:1-11; 1 Thessalonians 1:8; 2 Timothy 4:5; Hebrews 2:1-3; 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Revelation 22:17.

XII. Education

Christianity is the faith of enlightenment and intelligence. In Jesus Christ abide all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All sound learning is, therefore, a part of our Christian heritage. The new birth opens all human faculties and creates a thirst for knowledge. Moreover, the cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian education is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deuteronomy 4:1,5,9,14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Nehemiah 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalms 19:7ff.; 119:11; Proverbs 3:13ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7,11; 15:14; Ecclesiastes 7:19; Matthew 5:2; 7:24ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1 Corinthians 1:18-31; Ephesians 4:11-16; Philippians 4:8; Colossians 2:3,8-9; 1 Timothy 1:3-7; 2 Timothy 2:15; 3:14-17; Hebrews 5:12-6:3; James 1:5; 3:17.

XIII. Stewardship

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Genesis 14:20; Leviticus 27:30-32; Deuteronomy 8:18; Malachi 3:8-12; Matthew 6:1-4,19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21,42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Romans 6:6-22; 12:1-2; 1 Corinthians 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12; 16:1-4; 2 Corinthians 8-9; 12:15; Philippians 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19.

XIV. Cooperation

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Exodus 17:12; 18:17ff.; Judges 7:21; Ezra 1:3-4; 2:68-69; 5:14-15; Nehemiah 4; 8:1-5; Matthew 10:5-15; 20:1-16; 22:1-10; 28:19-20; Mark 2:3; Luke 10:1ff.; Acts 1:13-14; 2:1ff.; 4:31-37; 13:2-3; 15:1-35; 1 Corinthians 1:10-17; 3:5-15; 12; 2 Corinthians 8-9; Galatians 1:6-10; Ephesians 4:1-16; Philippians 1:15-18.

XV. The Christian and the Social Order

All Christians are under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in our own lives and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Christ, Christians should oppose racism, every form of greed, selfishness, and vice, and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, homosexuality, and pornography. We should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should speak on behalf of the unborn and contend for the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Exodus 20:3-17; Leviticus 6:2-5; Deuteronomy 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Micah 6:8; Zechariah 8:16; Matthew 5:13-16,43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Romans 12-14; 1 Corinthians 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23-11:1;

Galatians 3:26-28; Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:12-17; 1 Thessalonians 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8.

XVI. Peace and War

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war. The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love. Christian people throughout the world should pray for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 2:4; Matthew 5:9, 38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36, 38; Romans 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Hebrews 12:14; James 4:1-2.

XVII. Religious Liberty

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Genesis 1:27; 2:7; Matthew 6:6-7,24; 16:26; 22:21; John 8:36; Acts 4:19-20; Romans 6:1-2; 13:1-7; Galatians 5:1,13; Philippians 3:20; 1 Timothy 2:1-2; James 4:12; 1 Peter 2:12-17; 3:11-17; 4:12-19.

XVIII. The Family

God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. It is composed of persons related to one another by marriage, blood, or adoption.

Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race.

The husband and wife are of equal worth before God, since both are created in God's image. The marriage relationship models the way God relates to His people. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. He has the God-given responsibility to provide for, to protect, and to lead his family. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ. She, being in the image of God as is her husband and thus equal to him, has the God-given responsibility to respect her husband and to serve as his helper in managing the household and nurturing the next generation.

Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from the Lord. Parents are to demonstrate to their children God's pattern for marriage. Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on biblical truth. Children are to honor and obey their parents.

Genesis 1:26-28; 2:15-25; 3:1-20; Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Joshua 24:15; 1 Samuel 1:26-28; Psalms 51:5; 78:1-8; 127; 128; 139:13-16; Proverbs 1:8; 5:15-20; 6:20-22; 12:4; 13:24; 14:1; 17:6; 18:22; 22:6,15; 23:13-14; 24:3; 29:15,17; 31:10-31; Ecclesiastes 4:9-12; 9:9; Malachi 2:14-16; Matthew 5:31-32; 18:2-5; 19:3-9; Mark 10:6-12; Romans 1:18-32; 1 Corinthians 7:1-16; Ephesians 5:21-33; 6:1-4; Colossians 3:18-21; 1 Timothy 5:8,14; 2 Timothy 1:3-5; Titus 2:3-5; Hebrews 13:4; 1 Peter 3:1-7.

MISSION STATEMENT

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College exists to provide educational preparation for adults called of God into Christian service.

INSTITUTIONAL OBJECTIVES¹

1. Nurture God-called students as they prepare for the Lord's work.
2. Provide a quality Bible-based education with an emphasis on practical Christian service.
3. Initiate and maintain cooperative relationships with individual Christians, churches, associations, and conventions.
4. Manage human, physical, and financial resources guided by biblical principles.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

The men and women who have been called of God into Christian service through His church and are graduates of Clear Creek Baptist Bible College should demonstrate:

1. Knowledge and understanding of the Bible and Christian theology.
2. Sensitivity to the needs of people and the ability to minister from a biblical perspective.
3. Communication skills in the context of ministry.

CORE VALUES

To fulfill our vision, we commit ourselves to these Bible-based core values that affect how we function. These values will guide us as we seek to fulfill God's vision for the ministry of Clear Creek.

Centrality of Christ: We are a community of Christians brought together by faith in Christ as savior and Lord and by surrender to His call to service. We are committed to seek His will; to communicate with Him through prayer; to deepen His lifestyle through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit; and patiently work for His unity among us.

Trustworthiness of Scripture: We are a community of learners who affirm the total trustworthiness of God's revealed word as the guide for our life and the foundation for our equipping ministry.

Evangelism and Missions: We are a community of individuals redeemed from sin by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit. We affirm He died for the whole world and commissions each believer to take the Gospel into the world. We commit ourselves to the priority of personal evangelism and world missions.

Servant of the Churches: We are a community that exists to train individuals sent to us by the churches. We commit ourselves to serve the needs of the churches.

¹ Also called Educational Learning Objectives (ELO)

NON-DISCRIMINATION

No person shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination in any program or activity of the college on the grounds of race, color, national and ethnic origin, sex or handicap in accordance with federal government regulations. Clear Creek is an equal opportunity employer.

PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College believes God, the eternal Creator of heaven and earth, has revealed Himself generally in nature and human conscience and specifically through His Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Scriptures. We believe these Scriptures are a faultless guide for individual believers and congregations of believers. Therefore, the school's curriculum has the Bible as its basic textbook, and all studies are related to it in such a manner that its truths and principles govern the content of the courses and the conduct of the teachers and the students. We believe in the soul competency of mankind to comprehend general and special revelation with God's help.

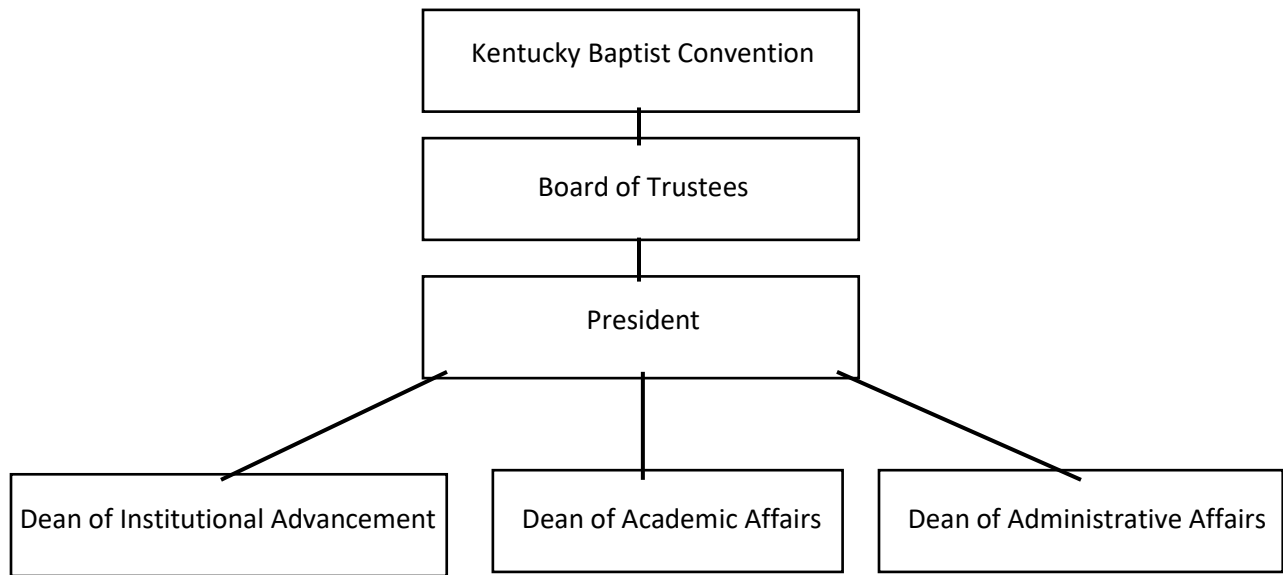

We believe God calls all believers to salvation and service in His kingdom. We believe further that God calls some members of the church to exercise their spiritual gifts as leaders of the church. God desires that these gifted people develop their spiritual gifts and grow in their ability to serve the church. People of mature years receive this special calling and deserve our assistance in their personal spiritual development. The Holy Spirit enlightens the sin-darkened minds of believers, and dedicated professors can serve as His instruments in this process of illumination carried on by the Holy Spirit.

We believe our college is a servant of the churches and should respond to and cooperate with them in the furtherance of God's kingdom. We can serve the churches by training those whose calling and gifts the churches have affirmed. This training rightly includes: spiritual development so the student can become a mature disciple of our Lord manifesting self-control and self-discipline, general education so the student can function as a respected leader in his community, biblical-theological studies so the student can understand something of the nature of God and the Christian world view, and practical training so the student can exercise his gifts in the context of the local church and community. All students should understand the church's missionary mandate and commit themselves to fulfilling their part in it.

OWNERSHIP, SUPPORT AND ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College holds its charter under the ownership of the Kentucky Baptist Convention. The trustees, not to exceed 32 in number, are elected by the Convention and are responsible to the Convention for the conduct of the College.

The Kentucky Baptist Convention supports Clear Creek through allocations of funds, which are received through the Cooperative Program, both for operating purposes, and capital needs. Listed below are the three divisions of the college. Each division is charted in detail in their appropriate section of the handbook.

WHAT IS DIRECT ASSESSMENT COMPETENCY BASED EDUCATION?

Competency Based Education (CBE) and Direct Assessment Education are terms that have been familiar with educators in the secular realm for some time but have only recently made their way into the world of ministry training. EDUCAUSE, a higher education non-profit offers this explanation:

The competency-based education (CBE) approach allows students to advance based on their ability to master a skill or competency at their own pace regardless of environment. This method is tailored to meet different learning abilities and can lead to more efficient student outcomes. (<https://library.educause.edu/topics/teaching-and-learning/competency-based-education-cbe>).

Regional accreditors are aware of and have written policy on Competency Based education. Included in the SACSCOC policy are these clarifications:

For the purpose of the application of this policy and in accord with federal regulations, the Commission uses the following definitions:

Competency: A competency is a clearly defined and measurable statement of the knowledge, skill, and ability a student has acquired in a designated program.

Competency-Based Educational Programs. A competency-based educational program is outcome-based and assesses a student's attainment of competencies as the sole means of determining whether the student earns a degree or a credential. Such programs may be organized around traditional course-based units (credit or clock hours) that students must earn to complete their educational program, or may depart from course-based units (credit or clock hours) to rely solely on the attainment of defined competencies.

Direct Assessment Competency-Based Educational Programs (also referred to in this policy as direct assessment programs). Federal regulations define a direct assessment competency-based educational program as an instructional program that, in lieu of credit hours or clock hours as a measure of student learning, uses direct assessment of student learning relying solely on the attainment of defined competencies, or recognizes the direct assessment of student learning by others. The assessment must be consistent with the accreditation of the institution or program using the results of the assessment.

(<https://sacscoc.org/app/uploads/2019/08/DirectAssessmentCompetencyBased.pdf>)

ABHE Commission on Accreditation also has policy on the subject. Ralph Enlow, writing as President of ABHE, remarked:

If you are not aware of the contemporary surge of interest in Competency Based Education, you should be. Fresh interest in CBE is being driven by innovators at the institutional level but also by policy makers at the national and international levels. One institution with a historical connection to ABHE is at the forefront of the CBE conversation. Northwest Baptist Seminary (BC) is one of two ATS-accredited seminaries that has been granted special experimental permission to develop a credible approach to accredited CBE. Over the next 4 months, I will be posting excerpts of an interview with Northwest Baptist Seminary President Kent Anderson and Director of Competency Based Theological Education, Ruth McGillivray, about this innovative approach and how you can become informed and involved. (<https://www.abhe.org/whats-buzz-about-competency-based-education/>)

Clear Creek has been an ABHE pioneer in this category for the past four years.

FOUR ASSESSMENT TOOLS TO BE USED IN THE MASTER OF ARTS IN MINISTRY PROGRAM

Barbra Thoeming wrote an article on five ways to assess competency-based learning. The article was part of the guide “Real Life Learning: An Up Close Look at Competency-Based Education.” Though the focus was on CBE in elementary schools, the concepts were basic in content and broad in application. The insight was so broad and so basic that four of the five methods could be adapted to graduate-level education. From that article came this four-fold model of assessing ministry competencies in adult learners. These four approaches to assessment constitute the model to be used in the Master of Arts in Ministry program.²

1. Formative Assessments—Happening in Real Time

CBE is more of a journey than a process. Formative assessments are necessary to adjust teaching and learning as needed. Mentors and professors interact with student learning at a real-time level. This interaction allows them to modify instruction as it is happening. Teachers not only provide real-time feedback but also add, subtract, or edit assignments to fill perceived needs. This is the key to dynamic learning.

2. Summative Assessments—After a Learning Experience

“Unlike formative assessments, summative assessments are evaluative in nature—taking place after instruction is complete and gauging mastery of a skill or competency” (Thoeming). The outcomes of summative assessments also help guide subsequent learning. The goals for summative assessments should be more than data. They should also be a learning experience in themselves and serve as a guide to learning that follows. These assessments can vary in type to match the competency being evaluated.

3. Authentic Assessments—Real World Learning

Thoeming contends that “Authentic assessments, specifically, are student centered and focus on real life situations—performing a task, conducting an experiment, designing and building a project.” This insight highlights the opportunities for assessment tied to ministry projects performed in real situations at the ministry points. A line from a movie comes to mind: “You are in real school now!” Authentic assessments are the heart of the learning model to be employed in the Master of Arts in Ministry program at Clear Creek.

4. Self-Assessments—Digital Portfolios—Artifacts of Learning

“Digital portfolios support a formative approach by encouraging students to collect artifacts that they can share with both peers and teachers” (Thoeming). The portfolios facilitate self-assessment in the process of students compiling evidence of skills and knowledge. The portfolios facilitate self-assessment in the process of students compiling evidence of skills and knowledge. The portfolios facilitate self-assessment in the process of students compiling evidence of skills and knowledge. Students & professors all need to have access to the common repository of a digital portfolio. This resource not only serves as a key element of assessment but a student should keep a copy of each assignment submitted and all feedback documents, that they might be used as evidence of ministry competency in other contexts. Portfolios track progress and reveal creativity. Finally, the portfolio will contain an on-going narrative that the professor builds on and refines until it eventually becomes the content of the qualitative transcript for the student.

² Barbra Thoeming, “New to Competency-Based Learning? Here're Five Ways to Assess It,” accessed 6/10/2024, <https://www.edsurge.com/news/2017-05-22-new-to-competency-based-learning-here-re-five-ways-to-assess-it>

MASTER OF ARTS IN MINISTRY PROGRAM

This program is based on twelve desired competencies which are integral to the design of the program. The twelve competencies are the basis for evaluating student success and determining when the degree should be awarded. The student learning outcomes of the program are achieved as these competencies are mastered. The four SLOs are listed next, followed by the twelve competencies.³

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO)

- PLO 1. Accuracy in understanding and communicating Scripture.
- PLO 2. Effectiveness in servant leadership.
- PLO 3. Authenticity in roles and relationships.
- PLO 4. Understanding denominational and congregational history and culture

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

- SLO 1. Understand and Communicate Scripture.
- SLO 2. Servant Leadership.
- SLO 3. Roles and Relationships.
- SLO 4. Denominational History and Culture.

LIST OF COMPETENCIES

Each of the Four Student Learning Outcomes will be achieved and assessed in direct correlation to at least one of the twelve competencies of the Master of Arts in Ministry program. The student will achieve competency who demonstrates the four Program Learning Outcomes in direct correlation to at least one of the twelve competencies of the Master of Arts in Ministry program. Those competencies are listed in course number order below and then by semester/term offered:

1. Bible Knowledge. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in their contextual understanding and interpretation of the Bible. MINI 500, (Relates to PLO 1 “Accuracy”).

³ PLO's and SLO's will be assessed by one or more assessment methods and reported on a Master of Arts in Ministry Institutional Effectiveness Report. The report will include: (1) An Assessment method to measure the PLO/SLO, (2) An Assessment Assignment(s) (the Measurement/means of Measurement); (3) the Administrative Procedures followed to assign the measurement; (4) The Assessment Results; and (5) How the Results were used (changes) to Improve future results. This annual Program reporting will have a cycle of three stages of administrative oversight: (1) Static Assessment (end of year 1) leading to Improvements/changes to close the loop; (2) Change Assessment (end of year 2), “Did the changes improve the PLO/SLO being assessed? If so, no changes necessary, If not reevaluate as to why (perhaps suggest further changes); (3) Certify Assessment (end of year 3), confirm the results of year 2, suggest further changes to improve the PLO/SL, and/or change the assessment method(s) for that PLO/SLO, and/or change the PLO/SLO to be assessed. Four selected Individual Competency Course will be annually assessed across each three-year administrative cycle (on a rotating basis; 4 every three years) regarding selected SLO's and Course Learning Objectives (CLO's). Each competency course will be assessed on a Master of Arts in Ministry Assessment Worksheet. The worksheet will include: Details regarding the Assessment Method, Specific Assignment for the SLO/CLO assessment, the Rubric used, Detailed Findings, and How the findings will be used to improve the SLO/CLO outcome.

2. Biblical Exposition. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in biblical exegesis through understanding and applying proper biblical hermeneutics. MINI 501, (Relates to PLO 1 “Accuracy”).

3. Preaching/Teaching. The student will demonstrate competency at the graduate level in the interpretation and communication of biblical truth through the ministry of the local church. MINI 502, (Relates to PLO 1 “Accuracy”).

4. Biblical Counseling. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in providing Bible-based Biblical counseling. MINI 503, (Relates to PLO 2 “Effectiveness”).

5. Worship Leadership. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in the effective facilitation of worship. MINI 504, (Relates to PLO 2 “Effectiveness”).

6. Church Administration. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in administrative leadership of the church. This competency includes the ordinances and business affairs of the church. MINI 505, (Relates to PLO 2 “Effectiveness”).

7. Christian Theological Heritage. The student will develop and demonstrate competence at the graduate level in the foundational disciplines of Christian theology, Baptist doctrinal heritage, and theologians of the Baptist tradition. MINI 506, (Relates to PLO 4 “Understanding” and SLO 1 “Accuracy”).

8. Disciple Making and Servant Leadership. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in stimulating church health through mobilization of the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth. This competency includes proficiency in team building. MINI 507, (Relates to PLO 2 “Effectiveness”).

9. Interpersonal Skills. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in the performance of pastoral care including communication and conflict management. MINI 508, (Relates to PLO 2 “Effectiveness”).

10. Critical Thinking. The student will demonstrate knowledge of the Biblical worldview and competency in applying it through Biblical critical thinking both in thought (observation, interpretation, reflection, evaluation, inference) and action (explanation, problem-solving and decision-making). MINI 509, (Relates to PLO 2 “Effectiveness”).

11. Spiritual and Character Formation. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in providing moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion. MINI 510, (Relates to PLO 3 “Authenticity”).

12. Research and Writing. The student will demonstrate competence at the graduate level in communicating biblically, theologically, and ministerially through the means of research and writing. MINI 511, (Relates to PLO 1 “Accuracy”). This course MUST be taken in the first Fall semester in the program

The college may at times, and at its discretion, change lead professors as schedules require.

MASTERS COURSE SCHEDULE

The following chart represents the recommended order in which the competencies will be offered. Once accepted into the Masters in Ministry program, students are encouraged to begin readings and other self-assessment studies assignments outside of classes—these may be found for all Graduate Competencies on Canvas. However in their first Fall semester, students must register for the Research and Writing class regardless of other courses taken.

Fall Competencies:	Hours
Research and Writing	3
Bible Knowledge	3
Biblical Exposition	3
Christian Theological Heritage	3
Spring Competencies:
Critical Thinking	3
Church Administration	3
Spiritual and Character Formation	3
Interpersonal Skills	3
Summer Competencies:
Biblical Counseling	3
Worship Leadership	3
Preaching and Teaching	3
Discipleship Making and Servant Leadership	3
Total: 36 hrs.

Optional Two-year Schedule

Year 1		Year 2
Fall Competencies		Fall Competencies
Research and Writing	3	Biblical Exposition	3
Bible Knowledge	3	Christian Theological Heritage	3
Spring Competencies:		Spring Competencies:
Critical Thinking	3	Church Administration	3
Spiritual and Character Formation	3	Interpersonal Skills	3
Summer Competencies:		Summer Competencies:
Biblical Counseling	3	Preaching and Teaching	3
Worship Leadership	3	Discipleship Making & Servant Leadership	3
Total:	18 hrs.		18 hrs.

Semester Schedules:

- a. Fall Semester Masters courses will begin/align with the CCBBC undergraduate Fall dates including the Fall break.
- b. Spring Semester Masters courses will begin/align with the CCBBC undergraduate Spring dates but WILL NOT INCLUDE the spring break—Masters courses will be active during the undergraduate spring break.
- c. Summer Term Masters courses will begin the first day after the last day of the Spring semester for Masters courses and will end the Friday before the Fall undergraduate courses begin—some summer terms will have fifteen weeks (as in 2024) and some may have fourteen weeks depending upon the calendar year (as in 2025).

SYLLABI & BOOKLISTS

Professors will complete submit each updated course Syllabus, along with their updated CV and faculty BIO, to the Graduate Studies Director 60 days prior to the first day of the semester:

- A. Summer Syllabi due: Mar 1st of every year
- B. Fall Syllabi due: May 1st of every year
- C. Spring Syllabi due: Nov 1st of every year

The Academic Dean will communicate to Professors their upcoming courses by Feb 1st of each year for the following Academic year (Fall, Spring, Summer). Professors will complete and submit course Booklists for the upcoming year to the Registrar by March 1st of each year. These dates will help the student know when they can contact the professors for syllabi and book lists.

WHAT WOULD MY STUDIES BE LIKE?

- Your first step would be to select the number of competencies you want to master in a given semester (Fall, Spring, and Summer). You can think of each competency course as a “window” for you to submit required competency assignments for assessment.
 - Students may enter the program and begin work on competency assignments at any time. However, assignments may only be submitted during the semester the competency is offered and you are registered as a student in that competency class. We recommend students to apply to enter as soon as practicable—and then to download/view syllabi and begin readings and study for their first competency course assessments in the following Fall semester.
 - In their first Fall semester, Students must register for the “Research and Writing Competency.”
 - Four competencies will be offered in a given semester.
 - A semester will consist of sixteen weeks. Some choose to complete the program within three semesters (Fall, Spring, and Summer) i.e. within twelve calendar months. These should plan to enroll in the four competencies that are offered in each consecutive semester.
- Students who choose to enroll in at least two competencies a semester should expect to complete the program in twenty-four months. This is recommended for students currently pastoring or with a heavy ministry load. This will feel like a full-time load. All assignments/assessments within each competency must be mastered in order to successfully pass the competency, and all competencies must be passed in order to complete the program. Your assignments must be submitted in an online format only during the semester the competency is offered and you are registered as a student in that competency course.

- Assessment Marks (Grading)

Graduate Level Competency assignments and Courses will be assessed according to the following four-level format. Writing assignments will also be assessed by rubrics following this format.

Benchmark 1 (B1)	Milestone 2 (M2)	Milestone 3 (M3)	Capstone 4 (Cap)
Novice, Developing— —the student has demonstrated progress toward initial required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior-- demonstrating SLO 1-4	Apprentice, Emerging Competency—the student has demonstrated proficiency in initial required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior-- demonstrating SLO 1-4	Proficient, Meets Competency—the student has demonstrated proficiency for all required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior: a student must demonstrate at this level to be competent-- demonstrating PLO 1-4. * This is Competency	Expert, Applying Competency—the student has applied the required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior to a new context-- demonstrating PLO 1-4
Gradepoints: 0.0	Gradepoints: 0.0	Gradepoints: 3.0	Gradepoints: 4.0

- Rubrics: Professors are strongly encouraged to use rubric assessments for:
 - a. Examinations (Field pre- & post-tests; quizzes, etc...)—may be assessed by points but often will be assessed by a rubric where portions of exams would assess line items in a rubric (tied to CLO, SLO/PLO, ELO) and where the professor would assign each level of competency (Benchmark 1, Milestone 2, Milestone 3, Capstone 4) an expected percentage to reach that competency level for that rubric line-item/exam portion.
 - b. Product assignments (Research Papers, Book Reviews, Essays, Reading Summaries, Posters, Bible Studies, Training Programs, original creative works, etc...) and
 - c. Performance assignments (sermons, teachings, talks/speeches, presentations, counseling events, recitals, exhibits, etc...) as possible;

-- At a minimum, each course will utilize a rubric to assess 2-3 major assignments.
-- Rubrics will be assessed according to the four-levels of Competence (above).
- Assignment Submissions: Students are required to submit assignments solely through the school 'Canvas' (elearning system) competency course—which is backed up daily by our IT department.
- Grading: Semester Course Grades will reported by professors and on transcripts as:

B1 =Benchmark 1	M2 =Milestone 2	M3 =Milestone 3	Cap =Capstone 4
------------------------	------------------------	------------------------	------------------------

- a. With the assessment of Cap, a student has demonstrated an expert level of competency and will receive a transcript gradepoint of 4.0 for a three hour graduate course.
 - b. With the assessment of M3, a student has demonstrated a proficient level of competency and will receive a transcript gradepoint of 3.0 for a three hour graduate course.
 - c. With the assessment of M2, as student has only demonstrated and apprentice level in completing initial assignments/ requirements—they will receive no transcript gradepoints or hours, they must retake the course the next time it is offered in order to complete their remaining skills/abilities/knowledge at an M3 or Cap level.
 - d. With the assessment of B1, a student has only demonstrated novice progress toward initial assignments/requirements—they will receive no transcript gradepoints or hours, they must retake the course the next time it is offered in order to complete their remaining skills/abilities/knowledge at an M3 or Cap level.
 - e. “I” = the student has demonstrated an M2 level of competency, however the student may appeal for an “I” (incomplete) for more time. The professor, if the student has been assessed at M2 level, at his discretion may grant a request for an “I-M2” thus giving the students 3 weeks beyond the end of a semester to complete all remaining work to an M3 or Cap level. If the professor then assesses the student’s overall work as M3 or Cap level, the student passes that competency. However if the student does not complete the work to an M3 or Cap level, the student’s grade reverts to M2 and they must retake the class the next time it is offered in order to complete their remaining skills/abilities/knowledge at an M3 or Cap level.
 - f. Individual required course competency skills/abilities/behaviors passed with a competency level of M3 (Milestone 3) will be retained in the student record. We are working with IT to house your assignment digital portfolio in a way that you and your professors have access at any time. Thus if you receive an overall grade of B1 or M2 for a course and must retake that course, you will retain the individual assignments passed with a grade of M3 or Cap and will not have to start over. Upon retaking a competency class, the professor will look at your digital portfolio and note the assignments passed with a grade of M3 or Cap and the student will only need to submit assignments previously not submitted or passed in that course.
- Feedback:
- In addition to the required competency assignments & assessments of knowledge/skills/abilities/behaviors required in the course, Professors will provide the following:
- a. Professors are required to assess submitted assignments solely through the school ‘Canvas’ (elearning system) competency course—which is backed up daily by our IT department—giving written and/or written summary feedback for all assignments.
 - b. Feedback for assignments (assessments/comments): will be returned to students within 7 days of the assignment submission.
 - c. Feedback for student progress: A mid-term Formative Evaluation of each student’s progress will be provided at mid-semester (phone-call or Zoom).
 - d. A Summative/Formative Assessment of the student’s overall coursework and course assessment (Benchmark 1; Milestone 2; Milestone 3; Capstone 4) will be provided at the end of each course (phone-call or Zoom).

- You will actually do the work of ministry as you study ministry. The “coursework” is only part of your learning experience.
 - You will be responsible for choosing a place of service and a mentor.
 - The mentor will not be required to have a terminal degree, as your professors are required, but will need to be experienced in ministry.
 - As you work through the competencies, you will stay with that ministry and that mentor until completion of the program.
 - Your mentor will be asked to disciple/mentor you through formative assessment of your real life ministry experiences.

- “Competency Based” means you finish the program when you have demonstrated competence in the twelve areas as defined in this manual.
 - We believe the average time will be 18 months. Note: It is up to you and the pace you choose to work your way through the program.
 - If a student sits in a class 3 hours a week for 15 or 16 weeks, that student may or may not be competent in the subject matter. Our competency-based program integrates the theoretical with the practical by utilizing the ministry field as the classroom.
 - A student could make an “A” in Preaching and not be a competent preacher.
 - This program awards the degree when the student has demonstrated competence. Isn’t that what really matters?

- The Director of Graduate Studies, currently Dr. Eric Mitchell, will be your advisor to guide you through the process, your mentor (selected by the student, but approved by the Director of Graduate studies in consultation with the Director of Christian Service) will teach you from experience, and your competency lead professors will guide you through each competency.

ACHIEVING COMPETENCY

1. You will serve in a ministry of your choosing, mentored by an experienced pastor or ministry leader of your choosing, and will be taught by a supervised, “hands-on” approach.
 - a. You must choose a Mentor and have that person approved by the Director of Christian Service prior to being fully accepted into the program.
 - b. The Mentor must be a seasoned practitioner, but will not have to have a terminal academic degree.
 - c. You will spend at least eight hours a semester in supervised ministry activity or conversation with your field mentor.

2. You will also have the benefit of a panel of credentialed faculty members who have terminal degrees and actual ministry experience.
 - a. Your Lead Professor will write the syllabus, assign reading, advise you on practical aspects of ministry particular to that professor’s area, and give you feedback and assessment on submitted assignments.

- b. You will maintain weekly contact with your lead professor.
- c. This may be accomplished in group discussion, seminars, conferences or one-on-one tutoring. It may also be in person or by distance methods.

The Director of Graduate Studies will oversee the graduate program process, ensure academic rigor, coordinate the efforts of the lead faculty and the mentor, and serve as a third resource in your learning experience.

DEMONSTRATING COMPETENCY

1. The student will be assessed for competency in each of the twelve areas using at least four types of assessment tools (see a full explanation of these assessment types above).
 - a. Formative Assessments—Happening in Real Time. Your mentor and/or your lead professor will constantly assess your progress and adjust your training accordingly.
 - b. Summative Assessments—After a Learning Experience. This may take the form of pre-tests and post-tests. It may be a summary report of an activity to be graded.
 - c. Authentic Assessments—Real World Learning. This may be ministry evaluated by those to whom you minister.
 - d. Self-Assessments—Digital Portfolios—Artifacts of Learning. This will be a continual collection of evidence of progress and will, upon completion, be viewed as the capstone assessment. It will also serve as the final opportunity to prove proficiency within the required competencies.
 - e. The Lead professors will determine whether the student has demonstrated competency across all required assessments, which will exemplify the required knowledge, skills, abilities, and behaviors expected within that competency. Either a general rubric or one specific to the assignment will be used for assessing each assignment.
2. Upon notification by the Lead Professor that the student has assessed as competent (Milestone 3-proficient or Capstone 4--expert) in a given competency course, the registrar will record that achievement on the student transcript.
3. When all twelve competencies have been demonstrated and approved, and the student transcript reflects completion of those competencies, the registrar will notify the Faculty members, the Director of Graduate Studies, and the Academic Dean who must by faculty vote agree that the student has completed the requirements for the degree, and the student will be awarded the Master of Arts in Ministry degree.

GRADUATE FEE SHEET: TUITION AND FEES⁴

Tuition Charges:

Clear Creek's Master of Arts program is designed with an affordable price point in mind. For example, unlike traditional graduate programs which charge per credit hour Clear Creek's Master of Arts program is priced per competency.

Option #1: Non-CCBBC Alumni Pricing:

The following serves as the breakdown in pricing:

- $100 (Tech Fee - Per Semester)
- $600 (Per competency)
- $2,000 (Block Rate: Must take four competencies in a semester.)

Option #2: CCBBC Alumni Scholarship:

- $100 (Tech Fee - Per Semester)
- $500 (Per competency)
- $1,600 (Block Rate: Must take four competencies in a semester.)
-

DROP/ADD ADJUSTMENTS:

Refunds will be made in accordance with the following policy:

1. 100% - withdrawal on 1st day of class.
2. After the first day of class, refunds will be calculated based on withdrawal week up to the fourth week of class:
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 2 – 100% refund
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 3 – 87.25% refund
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 4 – 81.25% refund
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 5 – 75% refund
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 6 – 68.75% refund
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 7 – 62.5% refund
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 8 – 56.25% refund
 - Withdrawal by the end of Week 9 – 50% refund
 - Withdrawal after the end of the ninth week of enrollment – NO REFUND
3. Withdrawal from a course is not complete until: (1) the student has submitted the Add/Drop/Withdrawal Form to the registrar; and (2) the student has received confirmation of withdrawal from the registrar.
4. Withdrawal from the program: Students leaving the program, the Add/Drop/Withdrawal Form must be filled out as above, AND for on-campus students, all applicable on-campus offices notified (for example: campus housing, the business office needs a forwarding address, etc.). Students who do not complete any competency course within six successive (continuous) semesters will automatically be withdrawn by the registrar and must reapply to the program.

⁴ The college reserves the right to alter, at its discretion, any of the information on this fee sheet.

Non-Refundable Fees:

Registration Fee	50.00
Late Registration fee	50.00
Application for admission for degree seeking students	50.00
Schedule Change	20.00
Graduation Application	100.00
Returned Check (per check)	13.00
Transcript Evaluation	10.00

FINANCIAL AID

Eligibility:

1. Clear Creek Baptist Bible College Alumni
2. Kentucky Baptist Convention or Southern Baptist Convention student
3. Completed FAFSA establishes financial need
4. Masters students will receive a declining scale only for in-house of CCBBC financial aid (scholarships) when they retake a previously taken competency course -- which they did not complete in a prior attempt(s).
 - o 1st attempt at a course = a student will receive 100% of whichever CCBBC scholarships for which they are eligible and awarded.
 - o 2nd attempt at a course = a student will receive 50% of whichever CCBBC scholarships for which they are eligible and awarded.
 - o 3rd or more attempt = a student will receive 25% of whichever CCBBC scholarships for which they are eligible and awarded.
 - o This policy will begin counting in Fall Semester 2025, and will not be retroactive for students already enrolled in the Masters Program.

How to Apply:

1. Student must complete FAFSA
2. Student must complete Clear Creek Baptist Bible College Scholarship Application
3. Student must complete any outside scholarship application

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College Endowments:

- CCBBC Alumni – up to $50/Competency enrolled CCBBC Scholarship not to exceed $1200 for the life of enrollment based upon availability of funds. Max of $200 a semester.
Asher Matching/Church Matching - $50/Competency enrolled per semester from the church matched with the Asher Matching at $50/Competency for a total of $100/Competency enrolled per semester. Max of $200 a semester Church Matching $200 Asher Matching Total Max $400 per semester.

*CCBBC Endowed scholarships will be removed to prevent an over award on the student account

*All Scholarships awarded per semester or per year will be disbursed within each semester the student is actively enrolled. If a student is not actively enrolled, scholarships will be removed.

* Students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress to continue receive Financial Aid.

GRADUATE PROGRAM HOUSING

Undergraduate students desiring to remain on campus in student housing for the graduate program, must notify either the Student Life office or the Physical Plant office and be enrolled, accepted, and registered for classes no later than May 1st for the Summer semester. Undergraduate students planning to begin the graduate program in the Fall semester will be responsible for summer rent and must be enrolled, accepted, and registered for classes by May 30th.

1. To remain active in the graduate program and live in campus housing, students must be full time, taking at least three competencies each semester. In special circumstances, students may apply for a housing waiver for part-time status through the Academic office. Students must remain enrolled on a continuous basis in order to remain in student housing. If a student ceases to maintain continuous enrollment, they will have 30 days to vacate student housing.
2. Graduate students must apply for housing by completing an online housing application form as follows: Single graduate students will apply for dorm housing through the Student Life Office. Single graduate students may also apply for a single dwelling apartment at Hemlock Heights through the Physical Plant office. Graduate students with a family will apply for housing through the Physical Plant office.
3. Graduate students may apply for a housing rent scholarship through the Financial Aid office.
4. Graduate students are responsible to adhere to all Clear Creek handbook policies and procedures.
5. Graduate students living in single student dorm housing are not required to attend weekly floor meetings and monthly joint hall meetings.
6. Graduate students living in single student dorm housing are required to undergo a room inspection once a semester conducted by Directors of Student Life. The Directors of Student Life may enter the room, with appropriate notice given.
7. Graduate students living in single female student dorm housing will be required to help clean common areas.
8. Graduate students in single student dorm housing will report directly to Student Life and are not under the Resident Assistants. However, all Graduate students are expected to uphold an attitude of Christian love.
9. Graduate students living in a single student apartment at Hemlock Heights apartments must follow all policies for non-dorm housing per the Student Handbook. See Student Handbook sections "Standards of Conduct" and "Physical Plant."

GRADUATE PROGRAM QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE

1. Do you accept transfer credit?

No. Because of the uniqueness of the competency based educational approach we are unable to accept any transfer credit.
2. What happens if I do not withdraw from a competency prior to the week eight deadline and I cannot complete the competency by week sixteen?

If a student submits enough work so as to neither: (1) Fail for Non-participation [FN Grade] nor (2) fail from accumulated absences from the course; and yet does not complete a competency course, the professor will assign the appropriate assessment for the work completed. The professor will assess the course competency as either a B1 (Benchmark 1—novice; for 0.0 gradepoint hours) or M2 (Milestone 2—apprentice; for 0.0 gradepoint hours). The student’s portfolio of competency work will retain all completed/submitted assignments regardless of assessment level. However only assignments which were assessed as either M3 (Milestone 3—proficient, this is competency; 3.0 gradepoint hours) or C4 (Capstone 4—expert; 4.0 gradepoint hours) will count toward the affirmative completion of the competency. Thus, assignments passed as competent (M3 or C4) will not need to be redone upon the next time the student takes the course—those assignments remain in the student’s portfolio of competency work. All work assessed as B1 (Benchmark 1—novice) or M2 (Milestone 2—apprentice) will need to be redone and submitted again. The student may work on those assignments (either not submitted or not meeting competency) of the competency course over the next year, but the assignments may only be submitted at the correct time when the student is a registered student for the class during the semester that it is next offered.
3. How often do I need to plan to meet with my ministry mentor?

Students and mentors should plan to spend a minimum of one hour discussing goals related to their respective competencies during the odd weeks of the semester (Weeks 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15). Students will document these discussions using the “Mentor Activity Report” form that will be provided in Canvas. Each competency will require the submission of this form during the odd weeks of the semester. A student’s submission of the mentor report form will count toward weekly attendance but not toward activity in the class. Only a competency assignment submission will count toward course activity.
4. Is housing available on campus for those participating in this program?

While it is not required or necessary to live on campus when participating in this program accepted students can petition the Academic Office as a candidate for housing. (See the housing policy on Page 22.). However financial aid toward housing is only available for full-time students. Full time for a graduate student in the Masters of Ministry is 9 hours (three competency courses) per semester. See the section Graduate Student Housing (below).

CCBBC ADMISSIONS POLICY

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College is an institution of the Kentucky Baptist Convention. Our basic purpose is to provide educational preparation for men and women preparing for Christian service. The College emphasizes the preparation of vocational ministers but other believers can secure biblical training for Christian service in the church and community. The college accomplishes this purpose by providing an education that is biblical, practical, and missional from a conservative Baptist perspective.

As a Christ-centered educational institution, the college is redemptive, but not rehabilitative, in nature. Therefore, a person should not come to college with serious family, health, emotional, or financial problems. The pressures of study, family, finances, church participation, and other factors weigh heavily upon the students and their families. These pressures can affect the well-being of the student. For this reason, applicants must be a minimum of one year removed from the completion of a rehabilitative program, probation/parole and/or incarceration sentence.

Standard Admission Requirements: All applicants for admission or readmission must qualify under the following initial minimum requirements:

1. Give evidence of divine call to vocational ministry or Christian service.
2. Have at least one year of active church membership before applying.
3. Must be free from the use of tobacco, narcotics, intoxicants, or habit-forming drugs in any form. Members of their families must also refrain from the use of such substances.
4. Arrange for the Admissions Office to receive official transcripts for all courses attempted and completed from all colleges and universities previously attended and/or currently attending.

Additional requirements apply to applicants who come under "International Student Admission" or "Special Circumstances".

International Student Admission

Clear Creek is permitted under Federal law, to enroll nonimmigrant international students. Such students must take the following steps to gain admission to the college.

1. Complete all of the standard admission requirements.
2. Take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and arrange for the official score to be sent to the college. The minimum acceptable paper-based TOEFL PBT (paper based TOEFL) score is 80 (out of 90) and the minimum acceptable TOEFL iBT (internet based, i.e. computer-based) score is 100 (out of 120).
3. Arrange for the Admissions Office to receive an official and final transcript for all courses attempted and completed in secondary school (the equivalent of U.S. high school) or official evidence of attaining the GED.
4. Arrange for the Admissions Office to receive official transcripts from all colleges and universities previously attended and/or currently attending.

When notified of provisional acceptance, an international student must send to the Business Office an advanced payment (in U.S. funds) equal to the cost of one full year of the college's tuition, fees, room, meals, and estimated personal expenses (approximately $20,000.00). An international student must also furnish documents that show they have the necessary finances to pay for future tuition, fees, room, meals, and personal expenses. Upon the receipt of the deposit and the necessary financial documents, Clear Creek will issue an acceptance letter and an I-20 form needed by the individual to obtain a student visa.

The acceptance letter furnished by the college must be presented to the Consular Officer of the United States. The I-20 information will be entered into SEVIS and can be accessed by the Consular Office. The student must be approved by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) to attend Clear Creek. The college will not enroll students issued visas for enrollment at other colleges. The college will evaluate transcripts course by course in accordance with the Office of International Education Services (OIES) through AACRAO guidelines.

Special Circumstances

1. Applicants who have been divorced and/or whose spouse has been divorced will be required to include an explanation of the circumstances leading to the divorce on the online application.
2. Persons who are incarcerated, on penal probation/parole, or partaking in a rehabilitation program will be considered for admission only after their incarceration has ended, the probationary/parole period has expired and/or their program has been completed.

Graduate Admissions Policy

The prospective student should initiate the admissions process by submitting an online application. Any falsification of the applicant's information or omission of pertinent information will be deemed grounds for rejection. Masters degree students must have completed high school or obtained a GED in addition to a Bachelor's degree from a dually accredited school prior to admission in the Master of Arts in Ministry program. Each applicant will be considered on an individual basis by the Admissions Director. After submitting the online application, applicants are required to submit the following:

- $50 Application Fee
- Pastoral/Church Reference
All applicants are required to submit a reference from their pastor. If an applicant is the pastor of his church, he will be required to submit a reference from another church staff member or chairman of the deacons.
- Student & Mentor Commitment Contracts
- Official College Transcripts indicating the completion of a Bachelor of Arts degree
- $10 College Transcript Review Fee

Applicants cannot be officially enrolled until the application process is complete. Applicants will be officially notified in writing by the Director of Admissions as to the acceptance or rejection of their application. If the applicant is accepted, and they wish to be on campus, they must apply for housing. If the applicant is approved for campus housing and does not enroll and move on campus for the next semester, then the student must reapply for student housing.

MENTORS

While the syllabi are written chiefly to explain the interaction between the Lead Professor and the student. This does not constitute the total activity by the student.

Your Mentor will be very important in giving you formative & summative feedback on your real life ministry experiences in your church and thus will be very important in achieving/showing competency in the skills, abilities, and behaviors assessed in all your competency courses as you seek the Master of Arts in Ministry Degree

The mentor (selected by the student), must be approved by the Director of Christian Service.

- You will be responsible for choosing a place of ministry service and a mentor.
- The mentor will not be required to have a terminal degree, as your professors are required, but will need to be experienced in ministry.
- As you work through the competencies, you will stay with that ministry and that mentor until completion of the program.
- Your mentor will be asked to disciple/mentor you through formative assessment of your real life ministry experiences.

Two key components are the Student-Mentor Contract (i.e. this must be filled out & signed by Student and Mentor before the end of week 1 of the semester for approval—see above) and the bi-weekly Mentor Activity report (to be completed by the student and submitted during weeks 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, and 15). The templates for these may be found below and as appendix to each syllabus.

STUDENT-MENTOR CONTRACT

DATE: _____

STUDENT: _____ MENTOR: _____

CHURCH OR POINT OF MINISTRY: _____

Mentor’s position in ministry: _____

Assigned position of student in ministry: _____

MENTOR’S COMMITMENT

I, _____ promise my support of the student in my role
Mentor’s Signature

as a “guide by the side” of the student. In that affirmation, I also promise:

_____ to meet if necessary with the Lead Professor, in person or by electronic means,
INITIAL HERE
to coordinate efforts to assist the student.

_____ to meet regularly with the student for counsel, encouragement, and evaluation,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to push the student toward excellence in every aspect of ministry,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to encourage the student in well-doing,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to correct the student in wrong behavior,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to teach the student from my experience and knowledge,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to interact with the student in patience and Christian love,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to claim any opportunity to assist the student’s efforts to attain:
INITIAL HERE

- Accuracy in understanding and communicating Scripture,
- Effectiveness in servant leadership,
- Authenticity in roles and relationships, and
- Understanding denominational and congregational history and culture.

STUDENT'S COMMITMENT

I, _____ recognize that I am student of my mentor as much as I am a student of my professors. Therefore, I promise to apply the same level of dedication and commitment in working with my mentor as I will show in working with my professors. In that affirmation, I also promise:
Student's Signature

_____ to meet if necessary with the Lead Professor, in person or by electronic means, as they coordinate efforts toward my good, _____ to meet regularly with Mentor to receive counsel, encouragement, and evaluation,
INITIAL HERE

INITIAL HERE

_____ to strive for excellence in every aspect of ministry,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to be diligent in well-doing,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to be quick to acknowledge and correct wrong behavior,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to respect and value my mentor's experience and knowledge,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to respond to my Mentor in respect and Christian love,
INITIAL HERE

_____ to seek any opportunity to grow toward greater:
INITIAL HERE

Accuracy in understanding and communicating Scripture,
Effectiveness in servant leadership,
Authenticity in roles and relationships, and
Understanding denominational and congregational history and culture.

List at least three ministry opportunities, generally or specifically defined, that will be available to the student. (Use back of page if necessary.)

List any requirements or limitations, generally or specifically defined, that will be placed upon the student. (Use back of page if necessary.)

MENTOR ACTIVITY REPORT WEEK NUMBER _____

(To be completed and submitted during weeks 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, and 15.)

Student: _____

Date: ____ / ____ / ____

Mentor: _____

Competency Discussed:

I am currently working on the following competency:	Check the Box that Applies:
Research & Writing
Bible Knowledge
Biblical Exposition
Christian Theological Heritage
Critical Thinking
Church Administration
Spiritual and Character Formation
Interpersonal Skills Expository
Biblical Counseling
Worship Leadership
Preaching & Teaching
Disciple Making and Servant Leadership

During this reporting period: (Use this form as a template.)

What goal(s) related to this competency did you discuss with your mentor this week?

What advice or insight did your mentor provide related to this competency and your respective goal(s)?

What do you identify as a personal weakness related to this competency?

What do you identify as a personal strength related to this competency?

How are you implementing your reading and research related to this competency within the context of your ministry?

Have you encountered any problems? If so, what?

Instructions: Complete and submit through CANVAS by the respective due date.

MENTOR ACTIVITY REPORT: Professor Feedback / Assessment

Assignment Assessment	Benchmark 1	Milestone 2	Milestone 3	Capstone 4
Overall Assessment Of this Assignment	Novice, Developing—the student has demonstrated progress toward initial required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior.	Apprentice, Emerging Competency—the student has demonstrated proficiency in initial required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior.	Proficient, Meeting Competency —the student has demonstrated proficiency for all required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior: a student must demonstrate at this level to be competent. This is Competency	Expert, Applying Competency —the student has applied the required knowledge, skill/ability/behavior or to a new context.
Do the Student’s skills, abilities, behaviors, and character meet the requirements of PLO/SLO 1: Accuracy in understanding and communicating Scripture?	Developing the knowledge and skill of understanding and communicating Scripture. Does not meet	Beginning to understand and communicate Scripture proficiently Does not meet	Accuracy in understanding and communicating Scripture. Meets	Expert in understanding and communicating Scripture. Exceeds
Do the Student’s skills, abilities, behaviors, and character meet the requirements of PLO/SLO 2: Effectiveness in servant leadership?	Developing skills in servant leadership. Does not meet	Emerging skills in servant leadership. Does not meet	Effectiveness in servant leadership. Meets	Expert servant leadership. Exceeds
Do the Student’s skills, abilities, behaviors, and character meet the requirements of PLO/SLO 3: Authenticity in Roles & Relationships	Developing Authenticity in roles and relationships. Does not meet	Emerging Authenticity in roles and relationships. Does not meet	Authenticity in roles and relationships. Meets	Excelling Authenticity in roles and relationships. Exceeds
Do the Student’s skills, abilities, behaviors, and character meet the requirements of PLO/SLO 4: Understanding denominational and congregational history and culture?	Developing Understanding denominational and congregational history and culture. Does not meet	Emerging Understanding denominational and congregational history and culture. Does not meet	Understanding denominational and congregational history and culture. Meets	Expert Understanding of denominational and congregational history and culture. Exceeds

DISTANCE EDUCATION

Mission

The Office of Educational Technologies seeks to provide the on-campus and online community with the technology needed for high-quality biblical education in the context of today's culture. Since all classes are offered online, students can obtain the MA in Ministry degree offered at CCBBC through an online platform.

Online Orientation

Clear Creek's innovative online orientation allows the online student to have a firm grasp of the online platform (Canvas). It walks the student through the requirements for an optimal online experience, advises the student on how to interact with the online platform, demonstrates where the student should go for academic assistance, and much more. The online orientation is the gateway to the student's online education. It is used for informational and practical purposes, and it can be a helpful resource for the online student throughout their educational experience.

Online Tutoring Center

Online tutoring center services are provided for the benefit of all online students. All online students have access to the Online Tutoring Center site at the beginning of each semester. The center is operated by a faculty member and qualified staff members who meet the college's criteria to serve as a tutor. The tutoring center is a tool to help the student achieve their academic goals. It can be used to receive assistance through a difficult course or to glean helpful insight before the submission of an assignment. Students can communicate with a tutor online face-to-face or call during the scheduled tutoring hours.

Technology Requirements for Online Classes

All online courses at Clear Creek are mobile friendly. However, students must meet the following technology requirements before taking online courses:

All online students must have access to:

- (1) A reliable high speed internet connection
- (2) A reliable computer with Windows 10/11 or Mac OS X 10.14 or newer (If a student does not have access to a computer, a Chromebook device may be used)
- (3) Office 365 (This software is free for online and on-campus students)

Online Support Team

It is the goal of the Office of Educational Technologies to offer online students the same quality support as on-campus students. All students in need of technical assistance may contact HelpDesk@ccbbc.edu and support will be given in a timely manner

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Orientation

Special features of the new student orientation include: acquainting new students with CCBBC regulations and academic requirements, introducing the new student to school personnel, and the online format in which they will be taking their competencies.

Academic Support

CCBBC staff is available, by appointment, for assistance in course work. Please contact the Academics Office for details.

Program Advising

Upon entry, each student is assigned the Director of Graduate Studies as their program advisor. This advisor is the student's counselor regarding all academic matters. Any academic procedure such as registration, dropping or adding classes, or withdrawal from school must begin with the program advisor. Normally, a student will have the same program advisor during his entire academic career. A student who changes programs must enter a program under the catalog in place at the time of the change.

Registration Procedure

Graduate Students are expected to register for a minimum of one course each semester (Fall, Spring, Summer) and must complete the degree within four years (12 semesters). If a student will not be registering for a class in a given semester, the student must communicate their current status to both the Registrar and Director of Graduate Studies. The student who has not completed the degree within 12 semesters may apply for more time to the Academic Affairs Committee (AAC). If the student has made sufficient progress toward the degree, the AAC may award a one-year extension. Registration procedures will be communicated to students prior to each semester. Students must consult with their assigned program advisor prior to registration. No one will be allowed to register after the first week of classes without the approval of the Registrar's Office.

Dual Enrollment

Students who are in their final year of their undergraduate degree at CCBBC can apply to be dually enrolled in the MA in Ministry program. The student will only be able to take two competencies per semester while designated as a MA-dual enrollment student.

Transfer of Credit to Other Institutions

Credits earned at Clear Creek Baptist Bible College may be transferred to other institutions. Decisions concerning acceptance of credit is under the control of the receiving institution. Students anticipating transferring credits to another institution should consult that institution prior to enrolling. Accreditation does not guarantee transferability of credits.

Course Load

Any student enrolled in 9-12 credit hours is considered full-time. Any student enrolled in less than 9 hours is considered part-time.

Class Changes

Once a student has registered, his or her schedule can be changed by following the established drop/add procedure which must begin with their advisor. Students may only add or drop a class during the first week of class. Students may withdraw from a class up until the eighth week and will receive a course assessment corresponding to the work completed (B1, M2, M3, Cap4). A Drop/Add/Withdrawal form will be sent to the student's email by their advisor after they have spoken with their advisor. The form is not considered complete until the student has been notified by the Registrar. Any student who feels he must withdraw from school must confer with the Registrar. If withdrawal is deemed necessary, he should follow the established withdrawal procedures.

Program Changes

If a student wishes to change programs, they must first consult the decision with their advisor. The advisor will walk the student through a degree audit and advise the student upon the feasibility of transfer. After receiving approval from their advisor, the student is responsible for notifying the Registrar's office of their desired program change. There is a program change fee which will be imposed upon the student's account after the program change has been finalized.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records. They are:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's educational records.
2. The right to request the amendments of the student's educational records to ensure that they are not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise a violation of the student's privacy or other rights.
3. The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student's educational records, except to the extent the FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.
4. The right to file with the U.S. Department of Education a complaint concerning alleged failures by the college to comply with the requirements of FERPA.
5. The right to obtain a copy of the college's student record policy. You can obtain a copy of the policy from the Registrar's Office.

This institution is in compliance with 34 CFR 99, which is the Code of Federal Regulations concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

Tutoring Services

Tutoring services are available during the school year by contacting Director of Tutoring Services and Developmental Studies. Any student may take advantage of these services at no charge, including Distance Education students who can meet with tutors electronically.

Graduate Program Attendance Policy

Just as in a face-to-face course, attending an online course is important. Clear Creek Baptist Bible College expects all online students to participate in all instructional activities.

Graduate online courses will, at a minimum have weekly activities for student participation, which can be documented by any or all of the following methods:

Records of Course Activity/Attendance

- (1) Syllabus quiz or other mandatory attendance activity as defined by the professor in Week 1
Students who do not log on to the course and complete the syllabus quiz or other required activity within the first week of the course will be dropped from the course at the beginning of the second week.
- (2) Submission of an academic assignment.
- (3) Completion of a quiz or an examination.
- (4) Participation in a posted online academic discussion.
- (5) Communication with the instructor of the course concerning any of the items listed above, that includes:
 - a. An email conversation which minimally includes: the student appeal, the professor's response to the appeal, and the student affirmation reply]).
 - b. The appeal to the professor regarding their situation in regard to course assignments must be PRIOR to earning the FN grade. If the reason for appeal is the death or hospitalization of a student's immediate family member, the professor at his discretion may wave or delay late penalties and allow for more time. The professor, at their discretion, may count the student's appeal for more time as a Record attendance for the FN—thus restarting the 21-day clock for the FN. However this will not count as attendance or reduce accumulated absences.

NOTE: Professors and Students are required to use their Clear Creek Canvas Inbox email account for all course or program interactions.
- (6) The Mentor Activity Report only counts as attendance/activity in weeks that it is due and no other assignment is due.

Please note, the following do not count as official course activity:

- a. logging into an online class without active participation (as described above).
- b. A recorded phone message to the professor
- c. A one-sided email to the professor
- d. Submitting the Mentor Activity Report does not count as activity/attendance to class in weeks that the Mentor Activity Report is due and another assignment is due.

Accumulated Absences

Graduate Students are responsible for all work from the first day of the semester and online students are expected to attend all classes in whatever form they may take. Graduate students will have a weekly assignment by which the professor will track their attendance. Failure to complete the weekly assignment will count towards an absence for the online student. Absences beyond 3 for a 3-hour class, 2 for a 2-hour class or 1 for a 1-hour class will be penalized at the discretion of the professor. A student who misses the accumulated equivalent of three weeks of class fails unless both: (1) an appeal is made to the Academic Affairs committee (AAC) showing cause, AND (2) the AAC then grants a waiver. If that student then misses the equivalent of a fourth week, he or she fails without opportunity to appeal. When a waiver is granted, all absences continue to accumulate. Students who fail to maintain active participation in an online course as defined here and in the course syllabus will be processed in accordance with the college's attendance policy. Any student who is absent due to not submitting a record of attendance (see Record of Course Attendance 1-6 above) for an accumulated 25% of the weeks of a class automatically fails.

FN Grade & Attendance Tracking

A student who does not participate in a graduate course in which they are registered for a period of 21 straight days will earn the grade of FN (Failure for Non-participation). Participation is defined as turning in one of the Records of Course Activity (see 1-5 above). Competency course assignments submitted prior to the FN—and assessed as Milestone 3 (M3-proficient) or Capstone 4 (Cap-expert)—will be retained in the student’s digital portfolio as passed/completed.

Graduate Program Late Work Policy

In church ministry, pastors must hit their marks—no pastor emails their congregation on Saturday to say that there will be no sermon on Sunday due to their life pressures/issues. This speaks to a level of both professionalism and the quality of shepherding care which is required to serve the flock. In the same manner the timeliness of your assignment submissions within a semester are tied to the quality, competency, care, and professionalism of your work.

- (1) Graduate students may always work on competency assignment requirements outside of the semester the competency is offered as a class. All competency syllabi and assignments will be made available in the CCBBC “Graduate Student” course on the Canvas Dashboard. However required competency assignments may only be submitted and will only be assessed by the competency professor during the semester in which that competency class is offered. Each competency syllabus will have a course schedule listing the required weeks in which specific required competency assignments may be submitted for assessment/feedback.
- (2) If, for any reason, a student misses a due-date and thus during the semester turns in work late, the following late penalties are prescribed: (1) 1-7 days late – an automatic one-level drop of the professor’s assessment of the quality of work (ie. From Capstone 4 to Milestone 3; or from Milestone 3 to Milestone 2; or from Milestone 2 to Benchmark 1; (2) 8-14 days late will earn an automatic two-level drop in assessment; (3) Over 14 days late will automatically receive the grade of Benchmark 1 and feedback will not be given by the professor.
- (3) Some assignments have two due dates with the professor allowing a resubmit 1-2 weeks (max) after the professor’s feedback is given on the first submission (during the semester). Assignments which have a resubmit option offered by the professor AND the first submission is turned in on time, may—after the professor’s feedback—be resubmitted for assessment. However all late assignments (regardless of reason or waving of penalty) will only be assessed once by the professor, and the student may not resubmit after feedback. All competency assignments must be assessed as either Milestone 3 (proficient/competent) or Capstone 4 (excelling) during the semester the class is offered. Otherwise the student will need to retake the competency the next time it is offered and resubmit failed (or missing) assignments on time during that next offering.
- (4) Appeal: If the reason for late submission is the death or hospitalization of a student’s immediate family member, the professor at his discretion may wave the late penalty and allow for a later first or second submission due date within the semester (max 2-3 weeks, but not beyond the end of the semester). If the student meets the above criteria for appeal and yet the professor declines the appeal, the student may then appeal to the Academic Affairs Committee.

Retaking an MA in Ministry Competency Course

A student who receives an overall grade of B1 or M2 for a course must retake that course. However you will retain the individual assignments passed with a grade of M3 or Cap and will not have to start over. Upon retaking a competency class, the Director of Graduate Studies will look at your digital portfolio and note the assignments passed with a grade of M3 or Cap and the student will not need to resubmit assignments previously submitted and passed in that course.

As the program moves forward across semesters, lead professors may change and they may make some changes to syllabus, textbooks, and assignments required within an individual competency. The assignment categories will basically remain the same (as has been the case over time), but assignment names & descriptions and some other requirements may change while some assignments could be dropped or added. Whatever assignments you completed in the competency course the last time you took it will be matched/aligned by the Director of Graduate Studies with the new/newly adjusted current competency syllabus assignments and if the prior assignments had been assessed as competent (milestone 3 or capstone 4) by the previous lead professor then you will not need to repeat them.

While you may work on assignments between semesters, any assignments completed will need to: (1) conform to the current/new term syllabus requirements for that assignment, and (2) be turned in during the Fall 2024 term in the time-frame (due date) expected by that syllabus.

The required textbooks may occasionally change. The academic rigor of graduate level textbooks must necessarily be greater than the good undergraduate textbooks required by the College.

When retaking a competency course, New textbook readings, newly added assignments, mentor meetings, mentor activity reports, etc will need to be completed and submitted on time according to the class schedule across the semester.

If/When you retake a competency course, you will need to contact the Director of Graduate Studies who will audit the prior course assignments completed and the new course syllabus and will give you a detailed comparison/correlation of the assignments between the two course offerings to further clarify what would remain for you to complete the competency course. Take note, there may be a declining financial scale of aid for internal CCBBC scholarships for repeated courses (see Financial Aid).

Withdrawal Procedures

If for any reason it becomes necessary for a student to leave school, a withdrawal form must be completed. This form is obtained from the student's advisor and must be completed by the student. Withdrawal is not complete until student housing is vacated, the Physical Plant/Kelly Hall is notified, all appropriate financial arrangements have been made in the business office, and the student receives a copy of the completed withdrawal form. If the student drops out of the institution without notifying the institution (i.e. does not officially withdraw), the last recorded date of class attendance by the student, as documented by the institution, will be considered the withdrawal date. See student fee sheet for refund information.

- You are responsible for turning in ALL keys to the Physical Plant/Kelly Hall before vacating the premises.
- The Physical Plant will notify the Business Office if there are any charges or refunds to be assessed to your student account.

The Business Office will send you a current statement within seven business day after you have completed the withdrawal process and vacated the premises.

Graduation Procedures

Completion of academic requirements does not guarantee graduation. Student must complete the following steps:

1. Submit online application to the Academic Office for graduation one semester prior to anticipated completion of the degree or graduation date. For an August completion make application by May 1; for December completion and/or Spring graduation, make application by July 21.
2. Settle all financial accounts and return all items to the library.
3. Be appraised as having proper moral conduct and attitude appropriate for a graduate of a Clear Creek Baptist Bible College.
4. Participate in graduation exercises or inform the Academic Office of graduation in absentia.

Participation in Graduation Exercises before Completing All Requirements

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College has only one graduation ceremony each year. Students who have not completed all the requirements for the Masters in Ministry may not participate in graduation exercises. After making online application to the Academic office to graduate, any student who fails to complete the work by the end of the Spring semester of the calendar year of the graduation ceremony must reapply for graduation and pay all fees associated with graduation, including the printing of a new diploma. The unused diploma with the improper date will be destroyed by the registrar.

Transcripts

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College has partnered with Parchment to process transcript orders for the institution through the internet. Go to CCBBC website, hover over Academics and on the drop-down, click on Transcript Requests. Create an account with Parchment then follow the instructions. Transcripts will only be processed if no hold has been placed on the student's account by the business office.

PROCEDURE FOR STUDENT CONCERNS/COMPLAINTS

Formal complaints by students in reference to issues that relate to accreditation standards are the concern of the academic office. The academic office maintains records relating to issues raised by students as well as action taken by the college to resolve those issues. The proper procedure for formal complaints are as follows:

1. Student's Professor
2. Director of Graduate Studies (who also acts as academic advisor to all graduate students)
3. Academic Affairs Committee
4. Academic Dean
5. President
6. Board of Trustees (at President's Initiative)
7. Accrediting Association (contact information in College Catalog p. 1)

Student Concerns/Complains

The proper procedure for a student to follow (in order of progression) in registering a concern, suggestion, criticism, complaint or conflict is as follows:

1. If the student is experiencing issues with a professor or fellow student, then it is recommended for the professor to be notified of the issue and given the ability to address the issue a student is facing.
2. If the matter is not resolved satisfactorily, the student should go to the Director of Graduate Studies who acts as academic program Advisor for all graduate students t and who will assist in resolution of the student's conflict.
3. If the student is still not satisfied and the matter deals with an academic issue such as a competency, curriculum, grade(s), or professor, a formal written statement should be emailed to Academic Affairs Committee, who will reply to the student within a week of receipt of the formal statement/email. All written statements need to be addressed in a fair and professional manner. The President will issue a written response in a timely manner.
4. If the student feels the need to further pursue this matter, a written statement should be emailed to the Academic Dean (with a copy to the President). All written statements need to be addressed in a fair and professional manner. The Academic Dean will issue a written response in a timely manner.
5. If the student feels the need to further pursue this matter, a written statement should be given to the to the President. All written statements need to be addressed in a fair and professional manner. The President will issue a written response in a timely manner.
6. If the student feels the need to further pursue this matter, they may request the President to have their issue to be heard by the full board of trustees at the next scheduled meeting.
7. If the student still feels as if the issue has not been addressed or handled properly, they can reach out to the accreditation agencies from the information on pg. 1.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College students, faculty and staff are expected to abide by a code of Christian conduct based on biblical principles. The college administration believes that each person involved in the college should maximize his/her influence for Christ both on and off the campus. Without being unduly legalistic, the following guidelines have been set forth to govern specific areas of student life:

1. OUR TALK: Strive to speak with love, kindness and compassion even when others do not talk, act and dress as we think they should.
2. OUR ACTIONS: Act toward others the way Jesus would in similar circumstances. This will help us to maintain a wholesome respect for each other.
3. OUR DRESS: As a Christian and a member of the Clear Creek Baptist Bible College family each person is accountable for the image or appearance he/she portrays. Students are to be careful at all times of their personal hygiene, modesty, and neatness. For both men and women, clothing should never be too tight or revealing. All persons are encouraged to use Christian integrity concerning dress, hair length and wearing of jewelry. (Please refer to Student Handbook for further details.)

A student may be placed on probation or dismissed from school for behavior or attitudes which violate the Christian commitment, standards of conduct and/or regulations or policies of the school.

FORM and STYLE

At our November 2020 faculty meeting, faculty affirmed the current edition of Turabian as the official style guide. Currently, that is “A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 9th edition” by Kate L. Turabian. Though Turabian is the standard for form and style, to enable a consistency of written work submitted by students, in summer of 2024 CCBBC faculty have approved a CCBBC Writing Style Checklist to be used generally for all writing projects as well as both a CCBBC Exegetical Research Paper Checklist and a CCBBC Exegetical Research Paper Rubric. These CCBBC Checklists and Rubrics will supercede in any matters where Turabian and these Checklists may overlap. Professors may also initiate style and rubrics for unique assignments within their courses.

Wherever a “Clear Creek Style Guide” is mentioned in existing syllabi, the reader is asked to substitute “The latest version of Turabian + the CCBBC Writing Style Checklist.”

The Library also has a copy of “Quality Research Papers for Students of Religion and Theology” on reserve. It has an entire chapter dedicated to using Turabian. It condenses Turabian focusing on research papers for students of Religion and Theology. Students will find it quite helpful, but need to be aware, it does not replace or supersede The latest version of Turabian + the CCBBC Writing Style Checklist.

Any professor has the right to request a variation from the norm in presentation or form and style for a particular assignment. In these cases, it is the responsibility of the professor to communicate to the student what is required for that assignment. Wherever no such communication has taken place, the student is to assume The latest version of Turabian + the CCBBC Writing Style Checklist are the correct guide.

MASTER OF ARTS IN MINISTRY
ADVISING WORKSHEET

Name: _____

Program Director/Advisor: Dr. Eric Mitchell

The graduate program at Clear Creek Baptist Bible College provides students with the opportunity to pursue a competency-based Master of Arts in Ministry degree. Instead of spending time sitting in a traditional classroom, students will learn and serve under the supervision of a field mentor while completing their assignments within their respective ministry context. The program consists of twelve competencies which is the equivalent of a thirty-six hour Master's degree. Students enrolled in our Master's program will have the opportunity to complete their studies within three consecutive semesters in the Fall, Spring, and Summer terms. To remain active in the program students must take at least one competency each semester.

Fall Semester Required Courses	Semester/Year Attempted	Semester/Year Completed
MINI 500 Bible Knowledge	_____	_____
MINI 501 Biblical Exposition	_____	_____
MINI 506 Christian Theological Heritage	_____	_____
Mini 511 Research & Writing	_____	_____
 Spring Semester Required Courses
MINI 509 Critical Thinking	_____	_____
MINI 505 Church Administration	_____	_____
MINI 510 Spiritual & Character Formation	_____	_____
MINI 508 Interpersonal Skills	_____	_____
 Summer Semester Required Courses
MINI 503 Biblical Counseling	_____	_____
MINI 504 Worship Leadership	_____	_____
MINI 502 Preaching and Teaching	_____	_____
MINI 507 Disciple Making & Servant Leadership	_____	_____

DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES

The College assigns responsibility for coordinating the Graduate Program to the Director of Graduate Studies. The Director of Graduate Studies. leads the faculty in:

- (1) initiating annual and accreditation program assessment of student learning outcomes,
- (2) program adjustments and improvements;
- (3) professional development of faculty; and
- (4) updating the program policies located in the Graduate Catalog/Handbook;
- (5) advising all graduate students in their studies;
- (6) communicating with all students.; and
- (7) The Director of the Graduate Program serves on the Academic Affairs Committee (AAC). Service on the AAC allows the Graduate Studies Director to coordinate academic policy with the AAC, the Dean, and the Faculty.

GRADUATE FACULTY

All faculty teaching in the Masters of Ministry degree program serve under Graduate Adjunct Professor contracts. Each teaches one Competency course in the Masters program each academic year. Each have terminal degrees and are experts in their respective fields. Some also teach full- or part-time at Clear Creek Baptist Bible College. Many also serve as pastors or in ministry at local Southern Baptist Churches in Kentucky and Tennessee.

...Also Full-Time at Clear Creek Baptist Bible College:

Burton, Donavon

B.A. University of Kentucky – 1997
M.Div. Southern Baptist Theological Seminary – 2009
D. Min. Southern Baptist Theological Seminary – 2015

Ditty, John

B.Th. Clear Creek Baptist Bible College – 1983
M.Div. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary – 1988
D. Min. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary – 1993

Goodman, Charlie

B.A. Clear Creek Baptist Bible College – 2009
M.R.E Covington Theological Seminary – 2010
M.A.C.S University of Cumberlands – 2014
M.T.S. Liberty University – 2018
M.A Liberty University – 2019
D. Min. Liberty University – 2021

Mitchell, Eric

Director of Graduate Studies

B.A. Baylor University – 1981
M.Div. Mid-America – 1994
Ph.D. Southern University – 2002

Nix, Matthew

B.S. Liberty University – 2011
M.A. Liberty University – 2013
D.W.S. Liberty University – 2020

Smith, Joshua

B.A. Clear Creek Baptist Bible College - 2008
M.Div. Liberty University – 2011
D. Min. Liberty University – 2021

...Also Part-Time at Clear Creek Baptist Bible College:Merrick, Bruce

B.A. Drury University – 1973
M.R.E. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary – 1977
Ph.D. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary – 1994

Adjunct Instructor for Clear Creek Baptist Bible College:Kennedy, Kevin

B.S. Liberty University – 1986
M.Div. with Languages, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary – 1990
Ph.D. The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary – 1999

Hester, Malcolm

B.A. Samford University - 1971
M.Div. Southern Baptist Theological Seminary - 1974
Ph.D. Southern Baptist Theological Seminary - 1981
Post Graduate study: Oxford University – 1990
Post Graduate study in Philosophy: University of Kentucky – 200-2005

Mitchell, Craig

Bachelors of Science Electronics Engineering Technology, Savannah State University – 1980
Bachelors Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Naval Postgraduate School – 1985
MS Engineering, West Coast University – 1991
Masters Management Information Systems, West Coast University – 1993
M.Div. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary – 1997
PhD Christian Ethics, Philosophy, Theology, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary – 2005
MA Economics, The University of Texas at Arlington – 2011
Ph.D. Public Administration, University of Texas at Arlington – 2012 – ABD (all but dissertation)

Summerlin, Dan

B.S. University of Alabama – 1981
M.Div. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary – 1985
Th.D. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary – 1991